

7th Grade Social Studies and Writing - Lundak

- In 7th grade Social Studies/ Writing students will investigate, analyze and understand the historical concepts of US history ranging from Early Explorers of the New World through the Civil War. Integrated into Social Studies, students will use the writing process to craft historical fiction, poetry, argumentative essays and other writing pertaining to the historical content.

	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June
7	Unit 1 Worlds Meet Conflict, challenges and change. The World Before 1500 Argumentative writing	Unit 1 Worlds Meet Conflict, challenges and change European Exploration of the Americas. Unit 2 Early Colonial America The English Establish 13 Colonies Argumentative writing	Unit 2 Early Colonial America The Colonies Develop Beginnings of the American Identity Argumentative writing	Unit 3 The Meaning of Liberty The Road to Revolution The American Revolution Writing Historical Fiction	Unit 3 The Meaning of Liberty Confederation of Constitution Constitution Handbook Writing Historical Fiction	Unit 4 Confederation or Nation Launching a New Republic The Jefferson Era Writing Narrative	Unit 5 Challenges of Expansion National and Regional Growth Manifest Destiny A New Spirit of Change Writing Narrative	Unit 6 War or Rebellion The Nation Breaking Apart The Civil War Begins Writing Poetry	Unit 6 War or Rebellion The Tide of War Turns Writing Poetry	Review Constitution Writing Review