

Did you know there are 43 languages spoken at our diverse school? In fact, we are building a foreign language library made up of books to represent our multicultural community. Thanks to the generous donations of our Sauganash families, our library is now made up of 20 out of the 43 languages.

