WELCOME BACK | January 7, 2017

Welcome Back

We are so excited to welcome back to all of our great students tomorrow, after a restful winter break! School resumes tomorrow at 8:00am! Our usual traffic pattern will go per usual with a one-way clockwise rotation around the school grounds. Kiss & Go locations will in all four locations around the property, please use these locations for a convenient drop off!

Attendance

Happy New Year
Sauganash Families,

As a reminder, school resumes on Monday, January 8th. Don't let this recent dip in temperatures lead to a dip in our attendance! Help us promote good attendance habits all year long. Remember to warm those cars up early, dress warm for the winter season, and be to school on time ready to learn.

Make Everyday Count-

Cold Weather

Luckily the forecast for the week does not look as cold as it has been over break, but please be sure our students are dressed properly!
